

substance of what we do does not appear out here. What we have done is extremely important. We should be able to finish this bill tomorrow.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, I appreciate the comments of the assistant Democratic leader. We made real progress over the course of the weekend and have a real understanding of how we will finish the bill in an orderly way. We will be working jointly to see, with the managers of the bill, it is finished tomorrow if at all possible.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Tomorrow, following morning business, the Senate will resume debate on the FSC JOBS bill. The vote on the motion to invoke cloture will be the first vote of the day. That vote will begin at noon. If cloture is invoked, we will then immediately proceed to a vote in relation to the Cantwell amendment regarding unemployment insurance.

Following disposition of the Cantwell amendment, we will continue to work through the remaining germane amendments to the bill. Additional votes, therefore, can be expected during tomorrow's session as we work toward completion of the JOBS bill sometime later tomorrow.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:45 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:45 p.m., adjourned until Tuesday, May 11, 2004, at 9:45 a.m.
